Dear Nathaniel,

Thanks very much for taking time last Tuesday. I greatly enjoyed our conversation, and I hope you also enjoyed meeting Remus later that same week.

As we discussed, and as I'm sure Remus also mentioned, it'd be^great if Senator Conrad could spare a few minutes to meet with Taiwan Ambassador Yuan and also perhaps even consider visiting Taiwan before he leaves office. FYI, any visit would be paid for via the U.S. State Department's Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act (MECEA) program.

Let's keep in touch, thanks again.

Dear Peter,

As you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

Following my February 15th discussion with you, I know that my boss, Park Strategies Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato called Senator Crapo just a few days later and that you then called him back. As Senator D'Amato may have told you, it would mean a lot to him if Senator Crapo took just a few minutes to meet with Taiwan Ambassador Special Representative Jason Yuan in the next month or so. Ambassador Yuan would like to brief Senator Crapo on U.S.-Taiwan relations, as well as relations across the Taiwan Strait.

Please let me know how we might proceed setting up this meeting. Please see attached Ambassador Yuan's bio, thanks very much in advance.

Kindest regards,
